

Alfredo Soeiro received the degree in Civil Engineering from FEUP in 1976 and the doctorate from the University of Florida in 1989 (Ph.D.). He was Director of the degree in Civil Engineering of FEUP and vice president of the department of Civil Engineering (2003/7). He was Pro-Rector of the University of Porto for Continuing Education between 1998 and 2003. He was founder of EUCEN (European University Continuing Education Network, 1992 - www.eucen.eu); RECLA (Network of Continuing Education in Latin American, 1996 - www.recla.org) and of AUPEC (Association of the Portuguese Universities for Continuing Education, 1999 - www.up.pt/aupec). He was vice president of EUCEN (1992/8) and SEFI, Société Européenne pour la Formation des Ingénieurs (2002/3 - www.sefi.be); president of IACEE, International Association of Continuing Engineering Education (2001/4 - www.iacee.org); president of AUPEC (2001/5); president of SEFI (2003/5). He is associate professor of FEUP. He is member of the editorial board of the journals European Journal of Engineering Education (1998 -...) and of Higher Education Outreach and Engagement (2001-2007). He received medal of 800th Anniversary of U. Sorbonne (1998), the International Hall of Fame of Adult and Continuing Education title (2006) and the EDEN Fellow award (2008). He was Visiting Fellow of the Institute of Higher Education of the University of Georgia (2006). He is representative of Portuguese engineers association in FEANI for CPD (2010 - ...). He is a specialist and member of the Construction Safety Committee of the Ordem dos Engenheiros (<http://www.ordemengenheiros.pt/pt/a-ordem/especializacoes/verticais/seguranca-no-trabalho-da-construcao/>). He is a founder and member of Portuguese Association of Safety Managers and Coordinators (<http://apcgs.pt/>). He has published several books and articles about Construction Safety and has supervised theses Safety costs and management. He is an Ambassador of ENETOSH (<http://www.enetosh.net>).