Symposium 12 — "Creating a safe and healthy learning and working environment"

26 August 2014, 4 – 6 pm, Panorama hall 1
Why to ask questions?

Questions might serve as a catalyst to bring about change. The process of innovative questioning may help you to find imaginative, powerful answers.

Ask “beautiful” questions …

Why the sky is blue?

Ask silly, intelligent questions …

Why we are not doing our projects together?

Formula: \( Q + A = C \)

Questions + Action = Change

Why to ask questions?
Questions might serve as a catalyst to bring about change. The process of innovative questioning may help you to find imaginative, powerful answers.

How to ask questions?

Ask “beautiful” questions …

Why the sky is blue?

Ask silly, intelligent questions …

Why we are not doing our projects together?

Formula: $Q + A = C$
Questions + Action = Change

Why to ask questions?
Questions might serve as a catalyst to bring about change. The process of innovative questioning may help you to find imaginative, powerful answers.

Ask “beautiful” questions ...
Why the sky is blue?

Ask silly, intelligent questions ...
Why we are not doing our projects together?

Formula: \( Q + A = C \)
Questions + Action = Change