Mainstreaming OSH into Education: Towards a Culture of Prevention

First day wrap-up

Ulrike Craes, BGW, Germany & Davorin Kacian UCASS, Croatia
Getting to know each other - Appreciative Inquiry

What can we do to make life better?

Stay safe on the job!
(story of David, told by Sue from Canada)
Official welcome to the workshop

Giselle Mitton & Laura Biscaro, ITC/ILO Workshop Managers
Overview of the meeting

This is an introduction to the workshop which explains in more detail the purpose, what we hope to achieve by the end, and the style in which it will be conducted.

Susan Gunn, ILO/IPEC
Andrea Okun, NIOSH, US
"Hot spots"! Education and training on OSH in your country: Where we are and what we would like to achieve by 2020

3 key-words of future scenario “OSH-Utopia”

• Vision zero
• Work adds to life
• Wellbeing at work
Global perspectives on OSH in education

Challenge for ILO: How to include OSH education in training for youth employment.

Speaker: Maria Prieto, ILO Youth employment, Geneva, Switzerland
Global perspectives on OSH in education

Vision of ISSA-Section of education and training:
• Health and safety from “school to work”
• Development of a culture of prevention
• Build up a safety culture in worklife and private life

Speaker:
Jutta Busch, ISSA, Geneva, Switzerland
The curriculum approach

- the North American experience

National standards for integrating OSH into school curriculum requires collaboration of Ministry of Education and Labour.

Presenters:
Stephen Horvath, CCOSH, Canada
Ontario has integrated health and safety into school curriculum but it’s done through partnership and collaboration.

Presenters:
Susan Boychuk, Ontario MOL, Canada
Hazard Mapping exercise

Robin Dewey, LOHP/UC, US
Experiences in implementing the curriculum

approach: SWOT analysis

Key words:
- OSH implementation
- Demands in legislation national collaboration
- Diversity of stakeholders

Panelist:
Susanne Ulk, DUS, Denmark
Experiences in implementing the curriculum approach: SWOT analysis

Although still a work in progress, Oklahoma is taking the steps to engage more students to learn about workplace rights. Allowing education, business and industry and government to work together is the key.

Panelist:
Lester Claravall, DOL-Oklahoma, US
Experiences in implementing the curriculum approach: SWOT analysis

Linking mental health with education is the key in school health promotion.

Panelist:
Peter Paulus, Leuphana University, Germany
Experiences in implementing the curriculum approach: SWOT analysis

Presenting of OSH education system in Macedonia and identifying problems and possible solutions for solving them.

- Panelist: Nikola Georgiev, MOSHA, Macedonia
Experiences Integrating OSH into International Technical Assistance Programs

Shifting now to the international level, development agencies have encountered challenges in changing organizational culture and in mainstreaming OSH into education priorities. This panel The presenter will share his view on what may be effective approaches to raising the priority of health and safety of children and young workers.

Presenter: Richard Rinehart, USAID, US
End of the 1st day

The end!

Thank you for your attention!