

Integrating Health for Sustainable Learning Success

Maren Jennings, Project Manager GHSI

Photo credit: <https://unsplash.com/de/fotos/person-holding-light-bulb-flq0tET6llw>

Why GHSI matters

---

- Health impacts learning
- Well-being is key to academic success
- Schools need a whole-school approach

Good Healthy Schools Initiative

---

- A framework for school development
- Linking health, safety, and learning
- Moving beyond isolated interventions

GHSI's Approach

---

- Health as a driver for educational outcomes
- Integrated into teaching and school development
- A framework, not a fixed guide

Educational Outcomes for All

---

- Schools as healthy environments for all
- Supporting students, teachers, and staff
- Equal opportunities for well-being

Supercharged Collaboration

---

- Working beyond school boundaries
- Engaging policymakers, educators, and health experts
- Strengthening long-term impact

How We Could Connect

---

- Sharing research and best practices
- Exploring common frameworks
- Strengthening global networks

Project Details and Partners

Project Details:

- Three-year international research project: Feb '23 - Mar '26
- Academic Lead: Prof. Peter Paulus, Leuphana University Lüneburg
- Legal stewardship: Leuphana GmbH, Dept of Education & Health
- Sponsorship: German Social Accident Insurance (DGUV)
- Leuphana GmbH is a fully owned subsidiary of Leuphana University Lüneburg, engaged in both scientific and economic activities.

Sponsor:

Contact for more information:

Peter Paulus peter.paulus@leuphana.de
Maren Jennings jennings@leuphana-gmbh.de

Partners:

